Subject: PDC Case 34599

Dear Julie Door:

Below is a copy of an electronic letter sent to Glen Morgan concerning a complaint filed with the Public Disclosure Commission (PDC).

As noted below to Glen Morgan, the PDC will not be conducting a more formal investigation into these allegations or taking further enforcement action in this matter.

However, pursuant to WAC 390-37-060(1)(b), this letter serves as a warning letter concerning your failure to comply with the filing requirements noted in the enclosed letter sent to Mr. Morgan. PDC staff expects you to timely file C-3 and C-4 reports in future years in accordance with PDC laws and rules. In addition, reports that are not timely filed during periods leading up to and following an election deprive the public of critical information. The Commission will consider this formal written warning in deciding on further Commission action if there are future violations of PDC laws or rules.

If you have questions, you may contact Tabatha Blacksmith at 360-586-8929, toll-free at 1-877-601-2828, or by e-mail pdcc@pdcc.wa.gov.

Sincerely,

Subject: Complaint regarding Julie Door, PDC Case 34599

Dear Glen Morgan:

The Public Disclosure Commission (PDC) has completed its initial review of the complaint you filed on April 11, 2017. Your complaint alleged that Julie Door may have violated RCW 42.17A.235, .265, .205, .220 & .320 for failure to timely and accurately disclose contributions, expenditures, books of account, committee registration, and sponsor identification.

PDC staff reviewed your allegations and, as a result of staff’s initial review, found the following:

- Staff’s review of the allegations concerning late filed C-3 and C-4 reports in 2016 & 2017 found that 7 reports were 2-194 days late, 12 were amended, and one was a voluntary filing.
- Two of the late C-4 reports were pre-general and post-general reports wherein the candidate had no financial activity to report and were filed 153 and 194 days late respectively.
- The Complainant did not provide evidence to support allegations 2-7 concerning alleged violations of RCW 42.17A.265, .205, .220 & .320.
- Ms. Door has no prior violations with the PDC.

Based on these initial findings and the fact that the public was not deprived of critical information, staff has determined that in this instance, the late filed reports do not amount to a violation warranting further investigation.

Pursuant to WAC 390-37-060(1)(b), Julie Door will receive a formal written warning concerning her failure to timely comply with the C-3 & C-4 report filing requirements noted above, especially during critical periods before and after an election. The formal written warning will include staff's expectation that Julie Door file timely C-4 and C-3 reports in future years in accordance with PDC laws and rules. The Commission may consider the formal written warning in deciding on further Commission action if there are future violations of PDC laws or rules.

The PDC has dismissed the matter and will not be conducting a more formal investigation into your complaint or pursuing further enforcement action in this case.

If you have questions, you may contact Tabatha Blacksmith at 1-360-586-8929, toll-free at 1-877-601-2828 or by e-mail at pdcc@pdc.wa.gov
